What's for Dinner?

Written by Chitra Soundar
Illustrated by Angela Kamstra-Jacobson

Giraffe was very hungry.

“I don’t want to eat leaves,”
he said.

“I always eat leaves.”

Giraffe tried eating grass
just like a deer.
But bending down hurt
his neck.

Giraffe tried to eat ants
just like an anteater.
But ants bit his tongue.

Giraffe tried eating honey
just like a bear.
But bees stung his nose.

Giraffe tried to eat fish
just like an otter.
But he fell in the water
and got very wet.

Giraffe tried eating bugs
just like a frog.
But his tongue was not fast enough.

Giraffe tried to eat seeds
just like a bird.
But his lips were too big
to pick up the seeds.

Giraffe was still hungry.
He bit into the green leaves
hanging from the tree.

“Delicious,” he said.

“Leaves are the best food.”

The Four Seasons

Written by Pam Bull

The Four Seasons

Written by Pam Bull

There are four seasons.

In spring, the rain falls.
Children play in the puddles.

The days get longer.
Summer comes.

In summer,
the days are hot.
Children play at the beach.

It starts to cool off.
Fall comes.

In fall, trees lose their leaves.
Children make faces on pumpkins.

The winds get colder.
Winter comes.

In winter, the days
are shorter.
Children play in the snow.

The snow melts.
It gets warmer.
Spring comes again.

Making Pizza

Making Pizza

Written by Rebecca Sandies

I am making pizza.
You can, too.

Make it flat like this.
Make it round like this.

Toss it up like this.
But don't toss it up too high.

Oh, no!
That's too high.
Plop!

Let's try again.
We can use this bread.

Let's spread sauce on it.
But don't put too much sauce
on it.

Do not forget the cheese.
We need cheese.

We need pepperoni, too.
Let's put it on top.

Mom puts the
pizza in the oven.
The pizza cooks.
Mom takes the pizza out.

I made pizza!
You can, too.

“You had a drama queen day today,” Dad said.

“I did not!” Dolly said.

“You cried when your hair looked bad,” Dad said.

“You stomped around when your shirt was too small,”
Dad said.

“You kicked the wall when your pencil broke,” Dad said.

“You held your breath when I was busy,” Dad said.

“You yelled when your milk spilled,” Dad said.

“You sobbed when it was time
for bed,” Dad said.

“You screamed when your toothpaste tasted funny,”
Dad said.

“It was the worst day ever!”
Dolly said.

“It wasn’t my favorite day,
either,” Dad said.

“Let’s make tomorrow better.”
